The assault took place in a row at the theatre, caused by McGiffin's attempt to suppress same misbehavior of Ah Sing. Several witnesses for the defense testified that no knife was that he had been cut in the hand.

They further alleged that McGiffin

Mis. McCullum telephones from Kapiolani Park that the "scale" had appeared on some of the trees in that lace yesterday. Being in town during the day, Mr. McCullum secured a few of the lady-bugs and took them with him. His opinion is that the pest-destroyer has not been introduced a day too soon.

A short time ago Ah Wai, a Chinese informer against highbinders, was atrociously assaulted by some of that class, his person being mutilated in a dashardly cruel way. His enomies not satisfied with this barbarous vengeance trumped up a charge of arson against Ah Wai. The case was presented to-day before Police Justice Foster, who found it atterly flimsy and refused to commit defendant for trial.

HOUSE AND LODBY.

When the House opened yesterday morning a quorum was present. The President complimented Noble J. M. Horner on this result of his fatherly advice, given in discussion of Noble W. Y. Horner's resolution for night sessions-an unnecessary

All the loquacious members except Rep. Pachaole seem to have got tired of hearing themselves talk. The House changed its mind on the Maui court term question inside of five minutes from 21 to 22, 23 to 21, and then from 24 to 20, first rejecting, and secondly and thirdly carrying the motion to indefinitely postpone the bill. MEMORIAL SERVICES.

The services previously announced to be hel i in memory of the late Mrs. S. C. Damon, took place Tuesday afternoon at the Central Union Church and were conducted under the auspices of the Woman's Board of Missions, Mrs. Bingham, President, in the chair. After an organ voluntary, the hymn 'Rock of Ages' was sung. Dr. Beckwith read Proverbs XXXI, 10.31, "Seest thou a virtuous woman," etc., and engaged in prayer. A short address was delivered by the President. Mrs. S. E. Bishop read a series of resolutions adopted by the Woman's Board of Missions relating to Mrs. Damon who had been an active member of that body. Mrs. Me-Cully gave an address on deceased's connection with the Woman's Board. Resolutions of the Stranger's Friend Society of which Mrs. Damon had been one of the founders some 40 years ago, and an efficient member and office bearer during the intervening years, were read by Mrs. C. M. Hyde Mrs. S. E. Bishop read a paper giving the history of the work of deceased as one of the foremost members of the Strangers' Friend Society. An anthem was then sung, after which Miss M. A. Chamberiain presented an account of the deceased lady in her relations to the Central Union Church. The last paper read was by Mrs. B. F. Dillingham on Mrs. Damon in the home and as pastor's wife. The address took up interesting historical reminiscences of the olden times when the hospitalities of "Father" Damon's house were extended to the wanderer, the homeless and the distressed of all nations. The hymn, "My faith looks up to thee." was sung, when the meeting was dismissed by the benediction pronounced by Dr. Beckwith. The addresses and resolutions presented will be issued in pamphiet form by the tadies of the Woman's Board and other societies

FÖRTY-EIGHTH DAY.

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 6. The House met at 10 o'clock.

QUESTION OF PROCEDURE. Rep. Brown asked if there was any decision on the bill relating to the Second Judicial Circuit. The President said the vote was announced, but he did not have the opportunity of deciaring that the bill was indefinitely postponed. Rep. Pachaole was supporting at length his opinion that the President was mistaken, when he was called to order by the President saying there was nothing before the House.

Rep. Brown moved that the vote on the bill be reconsidered. The President ruled that a motion to reconsider was in order at any chair. Rep. Bush agreed with the ruling, but the motion should come in its regular order

The President quoted from the rule, that reconsideration took precedence of other questions.

Rep. Pachaole lengthily objected to the ruling of the chair, and on being called to order appealed therefrom. He made another speech on the question of order being stated from the chair.

Noble Isenberg said the roling of the chair was in accordance with the custom of the Legislature since 1874.

The ruling of the chair was sustained. The motion to reconsider the bill was lost, 21 voting for it and 23 against. REPORTS OF COMMITTEES. Noble Muller presented a report of the committee on commerce as follows: HONOLULE, Aug. 6, 1890.

HON. J. S. WALKER, President Legislative Assembly.

Six,-Your committee on commerce, agriculture and manufactures, to whom was referred a statement of alcohol drawn from the Custom House for consumption from June 20, 1888, to June 30, 1890, in all 34162 gals., beg to report, that the parties having a license to sell alcohol under the Act of 1888 have not knowingly infringed the law, if it has been infringed at all. Dealers holding such licenses are keeping account of all sales of alcohol and are making sworn returns to the Interior Department. The dealings of alcohol in bond, however, call for the strongest con-demnation. On the 18th of March Mr. C. H. Eldridge imported 25 same April 9 per "Alton." Messrs, E. O. Hall & Son have on various occasions imported and brought here 72 bbls. of alcohol and exported same. Neither of the firms mutee considers these transactions a direct infringement of the law. Of the 5130 gais, of alcohol sold in bond here, 30 gals, have been used for the Smithsonian Institute, 87 gals, sold to men-of-war in port, and 5013 gals, have been sent North by whaling and trading vessels as fol-

E. O. Hall & Son, 33774 gals. C. H. Eldridge, 615½ gals. It is shamefully evident that, whilst the United States Government have in the interest of humanity made a law to prevent trading vessels from carrying and selling liquor, merchants have lent a helping hand to evade that law by supplying them with raw alcohol, and in consideration of the extremely friendly relations existing between this Government and that of the United States, as well as for moral reasons, upon which your committee does not think it necessary to enlarge, we hope that steps will be taken to avoid

gislative Assembly. Sin,-Your select committee appointed to investigate the passport frauds which caused the removal of five persons from the Customs Department, after a careful and searching investigation beg to report as During May, 1888, on the arrival of the steamer City of Peking from Hongkong the Port Surveyor, Mr. Markham, with his assistant, Mr. Gilfillan, discovered that 43 return passports from incoming Chinese passengers were numbered on their back in the handwriting of the party having used return passports in charge at the Custom House, thus clearly showing that these passports had been abstracted from his care. The above parties at once reported the fact to the Collector-General, who after investigation found that some 934 used passports were missing.
